

CANADIAN WAR ORDERS AND REGULATIONS

1943

ADMINISTRATOR'S ORDER NO. A-694

Respecting Bicycles

“metal plating of the type permitted by the Metals Controller only may be used on seat posts, handlebar stems, adjusting nuts and screws”

“a single bar curved top tube ...
a single bar straight top tube ...”

32”

6”

“handlebars to have a width of 20”, attached to a non-extension type handlebar stem”

“forks to be of a built-up tubular design without truss rods. No spring type forks permitted”

“no rubber may be processed for the manufacture of any article at any time when such article is included in this part...”

... bicycle handle bar grips
... pedal rubbers”

“steel mudguards not to be wider than  $2\frac{3}{8}$ ” of an .020 gauge steel with front guard not exceeding more than 6” in front of fork and rear guard not extending more than 32” from back or rear fork”

“chain guards permitted only on women’s bicycles”

